

Indo-Japan Seminar on Emerging Trend in Science and Technology

Date: 10th August, Wednesday 2016 10:00-15:00hrs

Venue: Satish Dhawan Auditorium, Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore

Jointly organized by The University of Tokyo- Department of Foreign Affairs, and Department of Instrumentation and Applied Physics, Indian Institute of Science.

Program: MC Ms. Radhika N K, PhD student, Indian Institute of Science

Inauguration Session
10:00-10:40	Prof. Rahul Pandit, Div. Chairman- Mathematical & Physical Sciences, IISc Prof. Asokan, Department Chairman, Instrumentation & Applied Physics, IISc Prof. Rajanna, Professor, Instrumentation & Applied Physics, IISc Mr. Hiroshi YOSHINO, Director The University of Tokyo India Office Dr. Ichiro UYEDA , Vice President, Hokkaido University (PhD in Agriculture, Washington State University) Mr. Junichi KAWAUE, Consulate of Japan Bengaluru
10:40-11:00	Tea Break
Technical Session

Presentation by Researchers from Japan and India

11:00-13:00

Title: Applications for Petrology in Natural Science
Indian Institute of Science (15 min.)
Dr. K. Sajeev, Assistant Professor, Center of Earth Sciences
(2003 PhD Earth Science,

11:00-13:00

