

---

The Pune chapter of the Mombusho Scholars Association in India (MOSAI) organized its second Japanese education fair in Pune on August 2, 2014 at Maharashtra Institute of Technology. With JASSO as the leader of the Japanese participants, the fair was attended by Hokkaido University, Keio University, Shizuoka University, Waseda University, Kyushu University, Ritsumeikan University and The University of Tokyo. 565 people (including students) took part in the event, showing great interest in Japanese higher education,

Representing The University of Tokyo were Prof. Jonathan Woodward from the Graduate Program on Environmental Sciences, Mr. Hiroshi Yoshino, Director at The University Tokyo India Office, and Shivani Gopalkrishna, also from The University of Tokyo India Office.

Prof. Jonathan Woodward talking to students

Mr. Hiroshi Yoshino, Director, UTokyo India Office addressing the gathering